Climbing Mooslanke on Sunday, a party of twenty members of the Ski Club Hochgebirge and their friends, including three women, found good going. Some, including Charles Proctor, who skied on the mountain Saturday reported excellent conditions, with dry powder snow, but rain Saturday night made a light, breakable crust which had to be worn down. Four members of the Apalachian Mountain Club who climbed what has persuaded you and Dempsey Eately that the explosion is O.S. We have three small telephone numbers for you - and what is more - all rigged up and ready to go. They don't die but they love good going just name the Sanborns and then and they will be there.

Still slimmer.
